Resolved, That Congress has the constitutional power to charter a National Bank, as a fiscal agent of the Federal Government, and a regulator of the exchanges of the country.

Resolved, That it is the duty of Congress to establish such an institution with a moderate capital; but as the time of creating the same may be highly material, it is deemed proper to submit that time to the wisdom of Congress.

Resolved, That his excellency the Governor be requested to transmit a copy of the foregoing resolutions to each of our Senators and Representatives in Congress.

Which were read the first time and passed, and ordered to be sent to the House of Commons, proposing to print.
